Feminism and the destruction of patriarchal values in the west.

A lot of women think feminism was all about women's liberation & rights.

Sadly, this is not the case, feminism was invented by ULTRA high IQ men, to ruin their life. Today, I will explain why.

THREAD

The movement was funded by the cabal (again) The Rockefeller family being the most instrumental in this.

The cabal wanted to achieve three main objectives by doing this

1. Break up the nuclear family (the corner-stone of any civilisation)
2. Tax more people
3. Brainwash kids

Ok, so point number 1. This has been TERRIBLE for the west since 3rd wave feminism took its toll. This happened in the late 1960s (Same time the birth control pill came out - just a coincidence LOL)

First, you destroy the nuclear family. Why? because its easier to control people who do not have a solid support network around them, think about this, what kind of young girls get targetted by predators and grooming gangs? It's not girls from good strong families who look out for them, is it? Nope, its girls who come from broken homes and care units etc.

You break up more families, you have more people that you can lead off the correct path. Feminism has been a massive contributor to the downfall of the family. It has single-handed created so many broken homes in the west, the damage is probably so widespread, you could not even begin to measure it. Its actually horrific how many single mothers are out there today, churning out kid after kids, with impunity, no regard for the future of the human race. Are some men at fault? Yes, there is plenty of dead beat dads around. Ladies reading this, don't be upset. I'm not mad at you, you have been a victim of a seriously vindictive and long-planned attack on the human race. Famous feminist author Gloria Steinem even admitted the CIA was running the whole movement.

Look at her snake eyes, compare her to somebody like Katy Perry (low IQ, one-track mind)

That is an evil person who knows EXACTLY how to run high-level operations to break down society, she knows precisely what she was writing her propaganda for.

See that's the thing ladies, you were completely fucking conned in the west with this bullshit. It was so blatant you never even noticed, and either did the majority of men who pandered to it, which I will forever hold it against the "men" of the west who came before me. Cowards

Can we blame them though? The programming was VERY advanced, and it was hammered into people from the late 60s onwards. Then in the mid/late 1990s. It was reaching its peak. The Spice Girls was the final nail in the coffin. Especially in the cuck UK, the home of PC bullshit.

You remember how big they were in the UK?

"Girl Power"

You think they came up with that?

That slogan was straight from the cabal playbook.

100 per cent high-level programming operation, which worked very well. After they went big, the "ladette" culture went mainstream

This is when, for the first time in history, it was acceptable for women to act like men, go out and drink, smoke, have sex with randoms every weekend yay! girl power!

I witnessed this first hand in the UK. Zoe Ball was the poster girl for it. Booze and the cig in hand YUCK!

That went well eh? Nope, total disaster. You see, the cabal are smart as fuck. They knew, once they got the woman into the workplaces, it would do the following -

1. Drive down wages
2. Get kids into school younger & for longer (more brainwashing)
3. Tax recipes go up!

GREAT

VERY Calculated campaign was feminism, I could not have conjured that one up myself! Now, look at the shit show in the west today! Look at the side effects of all this now. How many women today are childless, lonely & more depressed than EVER??

The sex & the city pipe dream never really panned out, did it?

I remember how women used to salivate over that show. God knows how many women moved to NYC to become marketing managers and chase "Mr Big" Only to be left with a coffin-sized apartment & fuck all else.

Totally conned - BIGTIME.

Good news is, women are starting to FINALLY see this now.

They know, their ego's were took over by SUPER VINDICTIVE high IQ men, all those staunch feminist idiots had no idea, they were playing a mans game ALL ALONG.

Aaron Russo the now deceased

Movie producer went public about this in 2007, youtube his name plus "woman's liberation".

He was close to the Rockefeller family, they told him the truth.

I'm glad more women are seeing this bullshit for it really is now. I do fear, it may be, too little, too late.

All we can hope for now is a mass awaking to it, but I think some woman are so deluded they will simply just double down on it, rather than admit they were fooled. That's fine, let them be miserable in their own thoughts. I hope you found this educational.

END THREAD.
