The Holographic Universe – is everything just a figment of our imagination?

I advise anyone who does NOT have an open mind, not to bother reading this.

This is for the Sages ONLY!

An expanded intellect is key to be able to comprehend this controversial topic.

THREAD

Let's begin from a point where we can all agree.

Every solid object, is made up of matter which eventually breaks down into what we call "atoms"

However, atoms themselves are not actually solid.

So how can a solid object, be solid?

We make it solid.

Lets go deeper.

Everything single thing we perceive as "reality" is done via the 5 senses.

- 1.Sight
2. Hearing
3. Smell
4. Taste
5. Touch

Look below - The famous "all-seeing eye" this is the REAL meaning behind it!

HIDDEN IN PLAIN VIEW!

Nobody else will tell you this!

DEEP LEVEL SECRET

The Eye Of Horus

Wadjet

The Senses

HEARING

Horus was an ancient God of Egypt and usually depicted as a falcon. The eye of Horus (Eye of Ra as it is sometimes called) can be turned to the left and to the right. The left eye represents the moon and the God Djehuti (Thoth) and the right eye is the Eye of Ra and is associated with the sun. The symbol is worn to protect from evil spirits and for protection.

The name Wadjet derives from the word wadj that means green, the green one and was known by the Greeks and Romans as "the risen one"

The wedjat was "the central element" of seven bracelets found on the mommy Shoshenq II and was intended to protect the king in the afterlife.

These senses make up EVERYTHING we experience. They receive information as a vibrational waveform which is then decoded by our senses and allows us to perceive reality in the way we do. However, I must inform you all about now. Every single thing you think is "out there"

Is not

It only exists inside a tiny part of your brain which is around 2-3 CM in size.

The whole universe is contained within that little space. Everything else, is an imagination, my friends.

You and the whole universe is one big hologram.

Sounds pretty crazy right?

Sure, let me explain further.

Let's talk about memories.

The human mind on average stores 2.8×10^{20} so 280, 000, 000, 000, 000, 000, 000 bits of information in a lifetime.

Scientists have asked, how can you even begin to hold all that data in such a limited space?

No supercomputer ever built comes ANYWHERE near this capacity. It is only physically possible if you use a hologram. You see, if you use holographic film and two lasers, you can store as much data as contained in two bibles into a 1 inch square of film could hear, her then young son out the back yard playing as a child.

The list goes on and on.

This is the most high-level esoteric secret of the cabal.

They understand the real nature of reality, they know the Supreme architect is a super high-level genius programmer who has crafted a big code we call the universe.

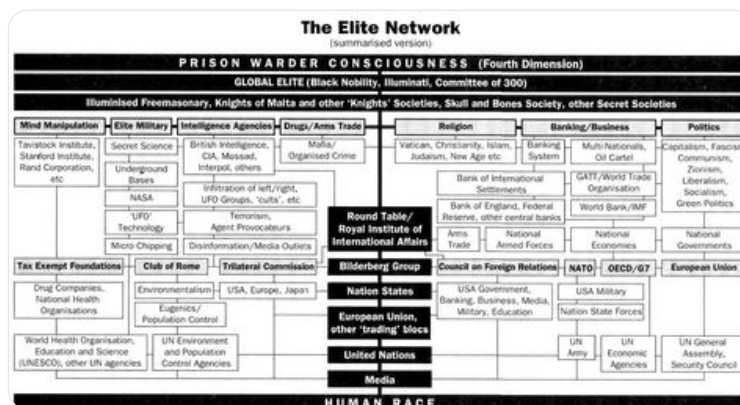

All they do is hack into the signal just before it reaches us. They are, at the highest levels, prison warders.

The use Saturn to hijack the code - then the moon, to amplify the signal to the earth. The moon is not a natural moon. It is hollow has a huge base on the dark side with very scary entities. Why do you think NASA never went back? lol, they were told to fuck off.

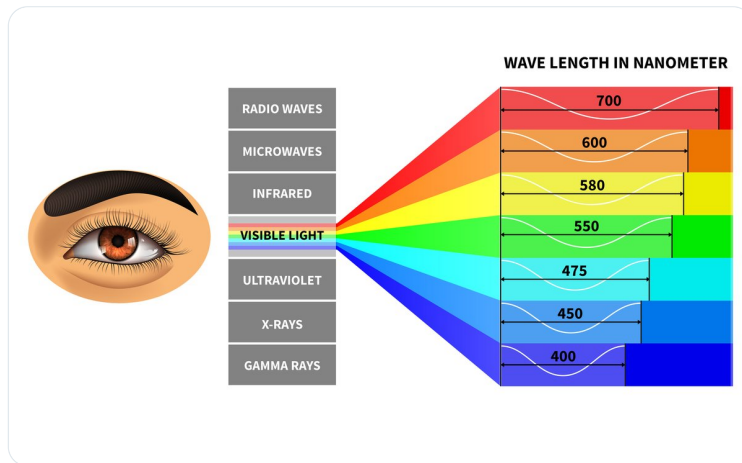

This is why in my book, I pointed out that life is indeed an illusion. I never wanted to go that deep too soon, because I fear people may freak out and run away from the truth as its too much to handle. But, this is, what the real nature of reality is.

It is one big hologram, in which we are contained in this tiny little playing field known as "visible light" Other entities I have spoken about in previous threads, only operate outwith this band of frequency (they can enter ours) But tend not too, unless Required or to interface directly with high-level cabal members during sacrifice rituals.

I know it happens at a castle in the black forest in Germany which the Rothchild family owns.

A good way to think about this, that makes more sense. Imagine, your driving your car, and you are listening to a radio station, then you change to another one, the first one still exists, it just not on the frequency of your car radio any longer. But, it is still there.

You may have heard of people who consume mind-altering drugs such as LSD, DMT, etc, saying when they were on these drugs, they seen everything as a hologram or in geometric patterns? And in some cases, they met what appeared to be aliens.

This is very easy to explain. Our minds are really just filters, They filter out everything and decode it down into what we experience as "reality" When people take these drugs, scientific data shows, the brain becomes LESS active. So, they "see" more but their brain is "less" active. This Does not make sense? at face value, no

But it does, these drugs turn off your filter, so you can see more of what is really there.

That is the truth about those drugs.

So be careful if you use them, God puts those filters on for a very good reason my friends.

I hope this deep level thread was enjoyable and gives you hope.

Just remember when shit gets tough or you fall on hard times.

We are being tested in a very complex simulation which has been hacked by a demonic cabal who want to build another layer on top of this current one

So they can control us, even further.

This is where the agenda always heads.

Now you know this, you will see it so clearly.

You will wonder how you never noticed before.

It's all in your head.

THE ONLY WAY OUT - IS IN.

END THREAD.
